

LifeBridge to dedicate new sanctuary April 26

Dave Mast

LifeBridge will dedicate its new sanctuary with a special worship service April 26, at 9:30 a.m. The church has been working to bring new life to the former Salvation Army church in Dover. Worship services, Sunday school and a nursery are part of the church, along with several outreach ministries.

LifeBridge is a new church made up of active professionals, working parents, students, homemakers, retirees, teens and kids. The Sunday worship service is an inclusive, non-denominational style. The church is located at 301 N. Wooster Ave., Dover. For information, call Chet or Holly at 330-343-4254.
